

Homeowner Service Partner Disclosure

At Colorado Luxury Bath, our mission is to help homeowners connect with qualified remodeling professionals for their renovation projects.

Colorado Luxury Bath provides marketing, advertising, customer communication, and appointment-setting services to connect homeowners with independent remodeling contractors.

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR PARTNERS

Colorado Luxury Bath works with independent contractor partners who operate their own businesses and are responsible for the services they provide.

Contractor partners are independently owned and operated businesses and are responsible for:

- Construction services
- Labor and subcontractors
- Materials and installation
- Project scheduling
- Permits and inspections
- Building code compliance
- Workmanship and warranties
- Final project completion

Colorado Luxury Bath does not directly perform construction, installation, or remodeling services unless specifically stated in a separate written agreement.

CONTRACTOR RESPONSIBILITY

Homeowners understand that any remodeling agreement, estimate, contract, payment arrangement, warranty, or construction obligation is directly between the homeowner and the selected contractor.

The contractor performing the work is responsible for:

- Providing accurate estimates
- Completing work according to applicable requirements
- Maintaining appropriate licensing, registrations, and insurance
- Obtaining required permits

- Addressing construction-related concerns

LICENSING, INSURANCE & COMPLIANCE

Colorado Luxury Bath works to connect homeowners with reputable service providers.

Contractor partners are responsible for maintaining any required:

- Business registrations
- Contractor licensing or local registrations
- Insurance coverage
- Permits and approvals required for their work

Requirements may vary by location throughout Colorado, and homeowners should verify contractor qualifications before beginning any project.

OUR ROLE

Colorado Luxury Bath assists homeowners by:

- Providing marketing resources
- Connecting homeowners with remodeling professionals
- Helping schedule consultations
- Improving communication between homeowners and contractors

Colorado Luxury Bath does not guarantee:

- Project approval
- Contractor performance
- Construction timelines
- Pricing
- Final project results

HOMEOWNER PROTECTION

Before beginning any remodeling project, homeowners should:

- Review contractor qualifications
- Confirm insurance coverage
- Review project agreements carefully
- Understand payment schedules
- Confirm permit requirements

- Ask questions regarding warranties and completion timelines
